Doc Circuit Montréal 2016 Programming Announced

Montreal, Tuesday, October 18, 2016 – Doc Circuit Montréal's (DCM) 12 edition will be held from November 12 to 16 2016. With over 30 events programmed and over 400 local and international guests and delegates, DCM is a key market for documentary professionals looking to finance their projects and meet new collaborators.

This year's programming is streamlined to the needs and requests of our documentary community, with a focus on funding for creative documentaries and rigorous issue-driven stories. Invited experts and buyers will bring new perspectives on international coproduction, distribution models, financing for short form and online content, as well as for features, series, and Virtual Reality (VR) projects. In 2016, DCM welcomes over 30 new Decision Makers committed to finding documentary content.

With the core mandate of facilitating the creation of canadian documentaries, DCM's programming this year offers 3 initiatives for emerging filmmakers and producers, 3 pitching events, 10 networking opportunities, 20 workshops and conferences, as well as a creative Virtual Reality Lab, the KINO VR.

Not to be missed, our favourite DCM classics will also return this year: the celebrated Talent Lab and ROUGH CUT Session, the Beat Dox: Doc + Music event, and the lively Cuban Hat and Eurodoc Pitches. DCM's central attraction, the bustling and ever-productive One-on-One Pitches, will take place all day on November 15.

ACTIVITIES FOR EMERGING FILMMAKERS + PRODUCERS

One-on-One for Emerging Filmmakers - October 5

The One-on-One for Emerging Filmmakers is a two-day event for 10 selected emerging filmmakers. Following a call for projects, the up-and-coming filmmakers received pitch training in preparation for a full day of pitches and meetings with ten established producers on October 5.

Talent Lab 2016 - November 12 to 14

The third edition of the DCM Talent Lab will bring together a select group of forty emerging and mid-career Canadian creators for three full days of specialized conferences and exploratory workshops, with a roster of artists and experts from the RIDM and Doc Circuit Montréal programmes. A tailor-made mentorship programme will also be awarded to 7 participants. A 10 000$ development grant will be awarded to a Canadian francophone project by Canal D, and the Peter-Wintonick Travel Grant will be offered to an out-of-province participant courtesy of generous members of the Montreal documentary community.

Cuban Hat Pitch - November 14

2016 welcomes the 6th edition of the Cuban Hat Pitch. An online vote and a tough jury deliberation has narrowed down all submissions to 5 carefully selected projects, which will be pitched in front of the notoriously energetic Cuban Hat Pitch audience in order to win cash prizes and services worth over 44,000$. The Cuban Hat Pitch is one of DCM's biggest events and showcases the community's collective support for promising documentary projects.

HIGHLIGHTS OF DCM'S PROFESSIONAL MARKET

Indigenous Videographers Shoot Back - November 12

Shoot Back is a manifesto of sorts, inviting a reversal/refusal of the traditional tropes of representing native stories. A constellation of Ojibway, Abenaki and Inuit artists and filmmakers discuss their own practices and processes, debate their disentanglement from the grips of colonial storytelling, and propose instead an energized and authentic engagement with places, people, and histories. With Alanis Obomsawin, Alethea Arnaquq-Baril, Isabella Weetaluktuk, Zach and Adam Khalil, and moderated by Audra Simpson.

Where Truth Lies: Opening Breakfast - November 14

DCM's 2016 Opening Keynote tackles the idea of Documentary Truth face on, with a constellation of different creators, including guest speaker Penny Lane, discussing the fine but perplexingly blurry line between journalistic truth and documentary reality.

A Conversation Between Jonathan Harris & Melissa Auf der Maur - November 14

Montreal native Melissa Auf der Maur (Peter and the Farm) and Jonathan Harris (Network Effect installation) both pioneers and legends in their own right, will sit together and have an organic, unscripted conversation about creativity, community, and career sea-changes.

Roundtables for New Decision Makers - November 14

Six new Decision Makers, six tables. Rotating through the room, each Decision Maker will lead a 20-minute meeting at each table, offering all participants the opportunity to gain different perspectives on the wealth of options available for funding non-fiction films.

The Ear Imagines - November 16

"The eye is lazy; the ear, on the contrary, imagines." - Bresson (Cahiers du Cinéma). Podcast producers Lulu Miller (Radiolab, Invisibilia), Cristal Duhaime and Mira Burt-Wintonick (Love Me) and Tally Abecassis (First Day Back) discuss the power of audio and how some stories are best told in waveform only.

EURODOC Pitch - November 16

For the third consecutive year, five producers will pitch their projects to a jury of European broadcasters and EURODOC representatives in the hope of being selected as the sole Québécois participant in the prestigious EURODOC co-production training programme, which takes place intermittently over an entire year, in three week-long working sessions in different European locations.
